Dear Applicant:

In your letter dated April 28, 2016, you requested a determination that donations to you are tax deductible under Section 170(c).

Our records indicate you are tax exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(4).

Based on the information you provided, we determined that donations to your organization are tax deductible under Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Based on your representation that at least 90 percent of your members are war veterans and that you're organized and operated primarily for purposes consistent with a war veteran's organization, donors can deduct contributions they make to you or for your use. If, in the future, you don't meet this membership test or if your purposes, character, or method of operation changes, donors cannot deduct contributions they make to you or for your use, as provided by IRC Section 170.

This supersedes our letter 4168C dated July 28, 2015.

Because your tax-exempt status wasn't under consideration, you continue to be classified as an organization exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(4).

Dear FILIPINO VETERANS GROUP IN :

This is in response to your Sep. 03, 2014, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(04) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in AUGUST 2014.

Because you are not an organization described in section 170(c) of the Code, donors may not deduct contributions made to you. You should advise your contributors to that effect.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Kim D. Bailey
Operations Manager, AM Operations 3
